Questions:

Please check our Frequently Asked Questions page

Prepare for the worst!

Understand your responsibilities	As the hirer of the hall, you have multiple responsibilities and obligations as documented in our terms and conditions.
You are responsible for the behaviour and health and safety of your guests.
List of attendees	Make sure you have a list of invitees and their contact details so that you can check off who attends. This could be required if you must evacuate the hall or if you have an infectious disease incident.
Assess potential risks	You must make your own assessment of the potential risks (things that could go wrong) and have a plan to manage them.
Plan for major problems	In the unlikely event of something going wrong, it will be easier to manage if you have a plan and have delegated some of the work to your team! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Fire (see below) <input type="checkbox"/> Accident <input type="checkbox"/> Power outage <input type="checkbox"/> Complaints about excessive noise <input type="checkbox"/> Disruptive behaviour <input type="checkbox"/> Gate crashers <input type="checkbox"/> Infectious disease incident
Appoint and brief your 'Fire Marshalls'	In the event of a Fire you must have a plan to evacuate the building. You must: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Appoint at least 1 Fire Marshall per 50 guests to OWN the plan. 2. Brief them on the plan 'In the event of a Fire' (see next page)
Look after Vulnerable people	Hirers have a duty to safeguard vulnerable users of the Hall and its premises, and those who may come into contact with vulnerable users. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Ensure you have appropriate clearances and child and/or vulnerable user protection policy. 2. Ensure children and vulnerable adults are supervised at all times. 3. Know who to contact for help with a Safeguarding concern
Ensure Food Safety	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If you or your caterer are preparing, serving, or selling food, you must observe all relevant food health and hygiene legislation and regulations. Some guidance is on display in the kitchen. • Consider having someone qualified in Level 2 Certificate in Food Safety and Hygiene to provide advice and expertise during the preparation and serving of food.
Bouncy Castles	Bouncy Castles are great fun but as with any physical activity there are risks and hence, they do require appropriate supervision and control. You should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ensure adult supervision at all times. • Not allow them to be used by children under 2 years of age, or by adults. • Segregate by size and age group for example 2 to 5 year olds, 6 to 12 and over 12. • Ensure the supplier has appropriate insurance and review your own insurance

In the event of a fire

What to do when a fire is detected? 1. Take charge!
2. Trigger the Fire Alarm.
3. Get everyone out of the building.
4. Check everyone is out.
5. Evaluate using the Fire Extinguishers.
6. Call the Fire Brigade.

How to trigger the Fire Alarm? Use the Fire Alarm points in the Entrance or Main Hall as marked on the drawing below.
